Discriminating clients have a new Maui address to call home. A gated community called Hoolei — a new product from the Grand Wailea Resort and Spa — is comprised of deluxe three-bedroom two-story townhomes measuring from 3,200 to 4,000 square feet. Each unit boasts a covered lanai and a modern kitchen with granite countertops, Italian cabinetry and built-in stainless-steel appliances. Guests are indulged with flat-screen LCD/plasma high-definition televisions, a personal barbecue, large master suite, walk-in closets and private laundry room. The resort's centerpiece is a tropical playground with a large pool and nine-foot waterfall, children's pool, whirlpool tubs, outdoor kitchen and fitness center with locker rooms and sauna. Hoolei guests enjoy signing privileges at the adjacent Grand Wailea. Commissionable rates start at $1,000 per night through June 15, then go up to $1,300. 800-888-6100; www.grandwailea.com ❖
